CALL FOR BREAKOUTS

2012 CREOG & APGO ANNUAL MEETING

Embracing Transitions in Healthcare: Educating for Tomorrow, Today!

March 7-10, 2012

Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek

Orlando, FL

The CREOG and APGO Annual Meeting features breakout sessions to facilitate an exchange of ideas and educational strategies among participants. Submissions are especially welcome on topics of broad interest across the spectrum of medical education. Sessions are one hour in length.

Breakout sessions should begin with a brief presentation, by two to three persons, to provide background and stimulate comments and questions. Time for group discussion is essential. We strongly encourage representation from more than one institution. Single institution breakouts are more likely to be selected if they include faculty from both the medical student and resident education programs. Please list only speakers who have confirmed participation.

Breakout session proposals are peer-reviewed by members of the CREOG and APGO Program Committee. The highest rated proposals are selected based on providing a broad range of topics and presenters. Preference is given to proposals aligned with the theme of the CREOG/APGO meeting, and proposals addressing timely issues in ob-gyn education. Information on abstract session proposals was sent previously, under separate cover.

Breakout proposals must be submitted online, via the CREOG Webpage, at <http://www.acog.org/creog-breakout/> by August 29, 2011, and should comprise no more than 2-3 pages.

Thank you,
