Basic Clinical Skills Curriculum

The Basic Clinical Skills Curriculum Teaching Modules offer a complete guide for teaching basic clinical and surgical skills to third-year ob-gyn medical students. The modules are intended to be comprehensive, covering a full range of required surgical skills.

Modules

13

Topics include 5 NEW topics added in 2017

Included Features:

Learning outcomes, best practices checklists, performance assessments, practical tips & resources

Topics:

- Breast Exam
- Pelvic Exam
- Cervical Cytology
- Universal Precautions
- Sterile Technique
- Knots & Sutures
- Intrapartum Cervical Assessment
- Vaginal Delivery
- Patient Positioning
- Surgical Timeout
- Foley Catheter Placement
- Informed Consent
- Surgical Instruments

Written by members of APGO's Undergraduate Medical Education Committee (UMEC)

Based on the AAMC Project on the Clinical Education of Medical Students and review of curricular guides

Useful for educators as resources for curriculum development

Content reviewed and updated by UMEC in 2017 with 5 new topics added

www.apgo.org/bcs