University of Vermont/University of Vermont Medical Center
Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Reproductive Sciences

Academic Generalist Division Faculty Position

The Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Reproductive Sciences is seeking to identify a new faculty member for our clinical Generalist Division. We are looking for an individual at the Assistant or Associate Professor level who is Board certified in Obstetrics and Gynecology. The ideal candidate would be eligible for a clinical scholar pathway appointment. A committed academic interest in either educational programming or research productivity is desirable. The Generalist division within the department is an academically active, growing, enterprise that currently includes 2 full-time hospitalists who cover a significant portion of night calls in addition to 8 full time physicians, 1 part time physician and both CNM and NP providers. The department currently has research expertise in clinical outcomes research as well as basic investigation in vascular physiology in pregnancy and reproductive immunology. The University of Vermont Medical Center is a high quality hospital based on UHC performance metrics. Academic rank, salary and benefits will be competitive and consistent with experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

The University is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and/or service. Applicants are requested to include in their cover letter information about how they will further this goal.

The University of Vermont is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other category legally protected by federal or state law. The University encourages applications from all individuals who will contribute to the diversity and excellence of the institution.
